HOUSTON Methodist HOSPITAL FOUNDATION

SENIOR DEVELOPMENT WRITER (FUNDRAISING) – FOUNDATION

JOB REF. #54963

Job Summary

Our Houston Methodist Hospital Foundation editorial team is looking for a Senior Development Writer adept at tailoring the message to the philanthropic audience while keeping it engaging, clear and grammatically sharp. Strong editing eye is a must. Claim your spot (hybrid or not) among a collaborative and talented group of writers and editors who craft compelling proposals, cases for support, stewardship reports, magazine articles and other collateral to tell the "story behind the story" of the medical breakthroughs happening at Houston Methodist. Please apply by visiting Professional Job: Senior Development Writer (Fundraising) - Foundation - Hybrid at Houston Methodist in Corporate | Houston Methodist Hospital Jobs (houstonmethodistcareers.org)

Houston Methodist Hospital Foundation is the fundraising arm of Houston Methodist, helping to lead medicine through gift cultivation, management and stewardship. With more than 2,300 beds, 32,000 employees, a world-renowned research institute and seven community hospitals in addition to our flagship campus in the Texas Medical Center, Houston Methodist is one of the nation's leading health care systems and academic medical centers. Salary is determined commensurate with experience, and employees are eligible for comprehensive employee benefit programs. A health care philanthropy background is preferred but not required.

Company Profile

Founded in 1919, Houston Methodist exists today as an independent academic medical center and market leader in Houston, the state of Texas and beyond. The last 20 years have seen unprecedented growth for the institution, including consistent ranking by U.S. News & World Report to its Honor Roll and as the No. 1 hospital in Texas. Forbes has also named Houston Methodist to its America's Best Large Employers list. In addition to providing highest-end patient safety and quality of care, Houston Methodist boasts robust translational research, graduate medical education and training initiatives further strengthened by affiliations with Weill Cornell Medical College, New York Presbyterian Hospital, Texas A&M University, Rice University and MD Anderson Cancer Center, among others. The Houston Methodist Hospital Foundation helps to accomplish institutional priorities, with philanthropy helping to fuel the institution's remarkable trajectory of success.

Salary Range

Minimum Salary	Maximum Salary
$70,800	$93,000

Apply Online

Please follow the link below to apply via our company website:

Professional Job: Senior Development Writer (Fundraising) - Foundation - Hybrid